"Service to others is the rent we pay for being alive..."

It's true he that he couldn't fly, or melt steel beams with heat vision, or lift crumbling architecture with superstrength. However, he did have a vision of a better world and a better community, the education and power to make it so, and the ability to reach his aspirations — an ability that took him much higher than the power to fly ever could. It was he and his trusty sidekick Enoch Cobb, who, with their combined power (which was nothing short of super), made life better for every student in the Barnstable school system.

Just think of a few of the ways David Cole and the Cobb Fund have enriched our lives since we first started in school back in the mid-90s. They made it possible for the Drama Club to continue running in 2001 and 2002 (Remember going to Bye, Bye, Birdie?). It was they who were responsible for installing the track and putting up the lights on the football field, so that soccer, football, and the ever-popular Powder Puff games could take place during the evening. And of course, no David Cole, no Cobb Astro Park, no observatory, no Memorial Garden.

Then there were the field trips. Whale watches and visits to Plymouth Plantation when we were in elementary school. Daylong sojourns in the theater districts of Boston and Providence when we were in high school. More often than not they were made possible by Mr. Cole and the Cobb Fund.

By working his magic as the trustee of the long-forgotten Cobb Fund, Mr. Cole single-handedly transformed ten thousand dollars in 1982 into four million today, and provided a financial lifeline for the Barnstable school system. He exemplified the idea that it is of the utmost importance to leave behind more than we take in life. He would undoubtedly feel that paying him this tribute in the 75th anniversary edition of the Barnacle would be too much.

But what could be better, since this year's book is centered around comic books, than honoring David Cole, who was, and always will be, the definition of a modern day superhero. No title could be more appropriate.

"Well all I'm sayin' is, I want to look back and say I did the best I could while I was stuck in this place."

-- Dazed and Confused

We're finally here! 4 years and the day I've been waiting for has finally come. As much as I dreaded th 6 a.m. wake up, I'm still grateful for the road that lead me here. Countless hours of being on stage, Cape Cod Rowing and Spain '08. AH - thank you for always being there for me, & Camp Lyndon. KA grew up in Harry's... and not much has changed. SC - no matter what, I will always consider you one my best friends. Mom - thank you for continuing to push me, even though I'm difficult. Dad - you wer always my inspiration and you never gave up on me. I love you guys. Auf Wiedersehen, BHS!

Jake Adams

"When it's breezy, hit it easy."

Good looks, it's over! I will never forget the past 4 years - the golf team bus rides, the hockey games, Scotty P's, summertime, Sandy Neck, carousel, CMF. To all "my boys":

Ghetto, S.A., Huey, Hayes and Capra: Keep it real.

Lauren - I will never have another friend like you. You're the best.

Alex & Mandy - thanks for everything. I will always look back on the best 4 years of my life.

Sean Adams

"The juice was worth the squeeze"

-- The Girl Next Door

It's been fun, but everything must come to an end. Mom and Dad, thanks for your help and support piver the past 4 years. Coach Edwards and family, thanks for everything you've done for me. MR, JC, PM, CD, JE, CH, BS, JH, JA, MP, ZS, BL, GS, DH, AC, RM, CL, AB, HA - my boys. It's been real, than for everything. Capras, Carousel, Cape Codder, Calim Scotties, went tourney, Ohio. Coach P Coach thanks for leading me the right way. The one and only KD, so much with you.

Thanks for everything, babe: I love you. Later, BHS!

Greta Aiken

"Some mornings it just doesn't seem worth it to gnaw through the leather straps." -- Emo Phillips

Well surprise, surprise - I am writing this at 10:30 the night before it's due. Hopefully I won't forget anything! Despite my complaints, I will miss it here. My friends, teachers and family have all been tremendously supportive. I have grown so much over these past four years and I am finally comfortable with myself- just in time to go to college! Wow! I told myself that this would not be generic but here I am saying I've matured - Well, I have, but I guess that if i'm going to be sappy it might as well be in my senior write-up. It's been good, but man, am I glad it's over.

John Alett

DTA: Don't trust anybody.
Unleash the beast!!!

-- Monster Energy

I have to thank a lot of people. Alex Graham-- I love you; you're amazing. Jimmy Silva -- you're my main homie. DJ, Katt, Jackie, Chris Mayne, Veronica, everyone in the crew: you were behind me all the way. I love all of you. Drink Monster of course. Veronica and Jimmy -- you guys are amazing (Jimmy, you're a Boss!) Chris Mayne -- you're a giant; you're a beast! Dad, you helped me a lot; I love you. Keith and my brothers, you know I love you. Framingham, Mass. I remember where I came from. High school was fun and the experiences I had made it memorable. Unleash the Beast -- Monster Energy.

Deanna Alves

"Education is what remains after one has forgotten everything he learned in school."

-- Albert Einstein

nank you to everyone who has helped me and supported me over the past four years. Special thanks my husband, my beautiful daughter (This is all for you), my mom, and all the ALP teachers: you have ally helped me to make this possible. I can't wait to see what the next chapter in my life has in store.

Jasmine Alves-Mattos

"Nobody can go back and start a new beginning, but anyone can start today and make a new ending."

- Maria Robinson

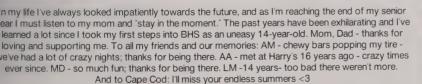

These four years have been fun. With break-ups and make-ups, it's been great all the way through. the people that have gotten me this far are my mom, my dad of course, my best friend Nee-Nee, and my others friends, like New-New, The Lizzes, Danee, Shaelynn, Shanae, Deanna, Jarell and CH! Holla! All the good times, especially Friday nights! We have a lot of memories. With Nielle - Hey, girl hey - and all of our inside jokes: fafino, crsco Beaches oh? bueces, Merh, Roop, oh, and cash is business. They gonna be famous one day. Love you Jay! Sosabe!! Bye, Felicia! NNBJ's LOL Always <3!!

"As you become more clear about who you really are, you'll be able to decide what is best for you - the first time around."

-- Oprah Winfrey

I can't believe it's really over! These past four years just flew by so fast. I want to first thank my mother for pushing me, no matter how difficult I was. My dad, stepdad, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends that I have stayed close with over the years -- thank you for being there through EVERYTHING! Christian and Vanessa -- my two very special siblings. Ricky, thank you for being the one person I could talk to about everything and anything. I LOVE YOU ALL! Thanks, Mrs. Taylor + teachers that never gave up on me. Congratulations, Class of '09!

Elba Angulo

"You may not realize it when it happens, but a kick in the teeth may be the best thing in the world for you."

-- Walt Disney

At this moment there are millions in motion. But out of those millions we manage to find those few that we can call family. For me I consider many of you to be just that. You have all showed me the importance of keeping my chin held high, both on and off the beam, and how to live life. I will never forget any of you. Mom and Joe, I love you both so much. You both have motivated me to reach farther than the stars. And to my Daddy, I love you so much. You are my hero and I'll always be your little princess. You'll always have a place in my heart. And to the class of 2009, Osez Rever!

Rayanne Araujo Sa

"Delight yourself in the lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart." -- Psalm 37:4

These past 4 years went by so fast! I've had so many great times in BHS. Thank you, Mom and Dad, Raynner, Rayalla and Rayelle for being a great family! I love you. Thank you God for always guiding me and standing by my side. To all my teachers and coaches — thanks for helping me succeed in BHS. And of course thanks to all my wonderful friends who I made everlasting memories with; you know who you are! I'll never forget you and I'll always love every single one of you! You guys were there for me in the fun times and when I needed a shouler to cry on. Thank you.

Good luck in the future, Class of '09. God bless!

Najam Ashgar

"Men for the sake of getting a living forget to live." - Margaret Fuller

Who ever thought that these four years would go by so fast? You know what though, they did! And now as we all go down our own paths, some to college and others out into the world, we realize what we could have gone differently. Let's take that knowledge and make our futures the best ones yet! Personally, I'm going to miss my brother Shawn. I hope your future holds the best for you. Mom and Dad and Grandma, thanks for being the BEST role models out there. But I really want to thank you. the CLASS OF '09, for choosing me as VP even though it took 3 years of running for office!

Callie A. Atkins

"Friendship is like peeing yourself: everyone can see it. but only you get the warm feeling that ir brings."

would like to thank everyone who has made high school an amazing time for me. My family has helped me so much and I couldn't have done it without them. Thanks to all of my friends who were always there for me through thick and thin. I love you all.

But now that it is all over, it is still hard to believe. I never thought the day high school would be over would come so soon. Well, thank you, everyone. I love you all so much.

Vikrem Bajwa

"The main course isn't the only part of the meal." "You are next!"

I want to thank my family, especially my mom and dad. Shout-out to my good friends, Jeff, Sam, Steve K, and Mickey. Special shout-out to Sherry, Amrit, and Harjit.

Ya. Seniors '09. Thanks, Mom and Dad. I love you so much; without you, who knows? School and sports but mostly friends. The crew. So many crazy times. Too many memories. Parties Ski Trips Allisons! Hockey and Volleyball games Soccer Team The VAN chillin, rippin, livin for the weekend. JAPPETTO no regrets. Growing up is so much of who we are. Its been ill!! All my bros: Mm Cl Bb Jo Tm Ch Pm Ac Oc. Thanks, girls. Magis. Thanks and good luck to everyone.

Too much love and still so much to do. See ya soon BHS! And Hmm...sesh...yesh!!

William Bancroft

"I'd rather be hated for who I am, than loved for who I am not."

— Kurt Cobain

These past four years have been great. I have met so many new people that I will never forget. The weirdest thing about this year is it will be the last year we will be in school together. Everyone will be going to pursue their own dreams all over the world. And after this year it will be time to grow up and start to support yourself. The things I will miss the most are going to be those after-school football games with Chris, Derek, Mike, Spencer, James, Joe and all the others that showed up. Also I'll miss the rest of my friends like Dan, Matt, Sam, Judee, Stacie, Cory, Calvin and etc...

Demor Barnaby

"Let me say the record I am. Not a gangster and never have been. I'm not the thief who grabs your purse. I'm just a brother who fights back."

I want to thank my mom and dad and my brother Kemar. Football player (34). #1 track champ. My friends: Romeo, Brittney A., Kelsey M., and Careem, Mario and Andre.

Chris Barron

"Just don't let the human factor fail to be a factor at all"

-- Andrew Bird

To all my friends ahead of me, behind me, and close to me: thank you. High school wouldn't have been the same without you. RM, TO, ZM, DG, KO, HO, LF, KV, SI, JL, DM, JC. Thank you to all the Creamers: I'll never forget the time we spent playing music together. Mom and Dad, thanks for raising me so well. All those constant and ruthless beatings really paid off in the end. God bless and best of luck to all the above. As for the Class of 2009, we're all on our way out; act accordingly.

Nick C. Bassett

"Reject the logical to make the impossible happen. That is the Team Gurren way."

- Kamina, Gurren Lagann

on't live a false life. Live a life you're proud to call yours. Don't live a life full of regrets for things you wer did. Listen to the voices of everything around you and see the world for all it is. Don't live in fear the possible. Instead, shoot for the impossible dream and make all the wishes in your heart a reality. we road ahead of you will be hard and long. That is just how life should be if it's meaningful. Have pe, believe in yourself, and remember, only you can determine your path in life and only you can make ur dreams a reality.

Jordan Bates

"Happiness is the secret to all beauty."

-- Christian Dior

Class of '09, we did it! Good luck to everyone from here on out. It's time to start life! Thank you to my best friends: Courtney, Liz, Stephanie, and Kayla. You girls have been awesome-from crazy nights out, to girls nights in for gossip girl, and laughing until we can't breathe. I love you all.

To my boyfriend, Giu, we've made it through many obstacles-thankyou for your support, love, and patience. I love you with all of my heart. Last but not least, thank you to Mom. Dad. Mark and Amy for your guidance, support and love. ooran!

Natalia V. Batista

"Success consists in being successful, not in hauling potential for success."

- Fernando Pesoa

can't believe it's done!!! These 4 years passed by so fast.I'd like to thank all the teachers that helped be get through these years, especially Mr. Stern, Mrs. Graf, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Cooper. Thank God and my family for the opportunity. I'll never forget all the people that passed through my life, providing me happy and sometimes sad moments. Well, so I guess now it's good bye, and move along!!!

"Take time to love, to hear, to see. But most of all take time to be!"

Starting out as a freshman was fun, but as the years went on, and now as a senior, I can't wait to get out. Having fun throughout the years was fun, but it is now time to settle down. I would like to thank my mom for helping me with my homework. To my dad for being a pain most of the time, but still making me do my work. To my friend Aaron, for being there for me. But most of all to my sister Ashley, for looking out for me all these years.

— J.R.R. Tolkien

iood bye, BHS! Thanks Michaela for being you, and to my parents. Thanks, Mrs.Gagnon, for always stening. Thanks, Mr.Lopes and Mr.O'Toole, for your guidance and great teaching. Most of all, thank ou, Mr.Sullivan, for taking me in and showing me the light. As for my friends in the BHSDC (past and present), too many of you to name, but you know full well who you are, and know that the last few years have been the most incredible time of my life. I'll never forget all the adventures we had; you have meant more to me than you could ever possibly know!

And now for the second act...

- George Bernard Shaw

I can't believe high school is finally over! Thanks to all my friends and family for helping me get through these last four years. I especially want to thank my Mom, Dad, Krista and Dylan.

I love you for always being there for me. I'm going to miss everyone!

Ethan Bruce

"None but a coward dares to boast that he has never known fear."

In high school you learn a lot from your teachers and textbooks, but you learn more from both your friends and your enemies. You learn life isn't always fair, that the right thing isn't always the easiest thing. You learn about yourself, your strengths, your weaknesses. It's not always easy, but it's the purage to continue that counts. To all the friends who have helped me through it all -- SB, SG, DS, JK, BF, AM, AS -- and everyone else, I just wanted to say thank you.

-- J.R.R. Tolkien

The past four years for me weren't the easiest, but they were always entertaining. My parents and brother were always there to support me. Thanks; you guys are the best. But what really made these years unforgettable were my friends. You guys were there to make me laugh when I needed it the most. I love you all and thank you for always being there for me. I'm going to miss everyone!

Thank you, BHS, for a great 4 years! Thanks to Mom and Dad: you have always been there for me through thick and thin. All of my great friends: Nicky Neusance, Kreepin' Kraus, Leo Lion, Matty Moos MH, ET, JG, CH, the gals, all the locker guys. Go home, hold da potatoes. Harry Butt and Rachel, good luck! I will miss you guys! I will also miss hanging at Nick's with the guys, driving around causing scene, hanging out at Cal's, late night weekends, the cross country team! It has all gone fast! Goodby

It's amazing how much has changed in four years. Yet looking around, I still see the kids I grew up with.

Now we're moving on whether we're ready or not. I don't know where we're going, but I know we'll make a difference. Thank you to my friends who made these years a time worth remembering, especially Ari, the best friend I could ask for. Jessie, thanks for always letting me know what's up. Mom and Dad, I love you and you couldn't have set a better example for me. I've officially gotten all I can out of this place. Time to see what the world over the canal has to offer.

I can't believe it's already over. Yay! 4 years of my life have passed and high school would've been impossible without my mom, Brandon and friends, Sammie, Steph Olive, Zoe - I wouldn't have done it without you guys. As I leave for the Navy in August, I'll think back and remember all the times that won' be forgotten, all the decisions that helped me shape who I am today. I'll continue on my journey through life not exactly knowing why I made the decisions I made, but I will never regret any of it.

It's been nice. Have a good life. PEACE!

We finally made it! These four years have been full of the best times in my life. I will never forget the precious memories I have made here at BHS. I would've never made it through without my family. Mom, Dad, Dan, Nikki -- I love you guys more than anything. To all my friends -- I'll always remember our inside jokes and crazy adventures. You all mean the world to me.

Thanks to all of my teachers and coaches; I've learned so much and will always remember all of you. Class of 2009, it's been a fun ride; good luck with everything you do! Appreciate the little things in life.

I want to thank everyone who stuck by me through all my ridiculousness. I never would have made it this far without the love and support you all gave me. I'm not going to name names. I've saved all the otes, pictures and everything else from these last few years. They mean more to me than I could ever explain. I can't wait to see what you guys go on to do in your own lives, and I truly hope that you continue to be part of mine as well. Thank you all so much <<3.

First I would like to thank God for giving me the strength and knowledge to move on. In my many years of school I have been through many challenges that were hard to bear, and without the love, support and prayers of my family I wouldn't have made it. Thank you to my mother and grandparents for going to meetings every year to help me pass. Also, thanks to the Gyras for giving me that little push I needed. All I have to do now is look forward, toss my hat, and blow a kiss, because I finally made it.

There have been so many amazing memories made these past four years that would not have happened without you guys. I spent the majority of the last four years laughing, and even the tough times were just jokes in the end. You all know how much I love you. Mom, Dad & Kristen, thank you so much for your limitless love and support; I'm so proud to be part of our family; I love you! Caitie, could this have been any more frickin' amazing? I don't think so. Thanks for an awesome 11 years; I love you! RK, JP, CH -- my boys <3: I love you guys. Thank you to everyone who has impacted my life in the last 17 years. Good or bad, I learned something from each experience.

It's good to move on. OC and Graham, you guys are my best friends and I love you like brothers. We have to stay close long after graduation. To all my friends, such good times: skipping school to joke around, being idiots on and off school grounds, just hanging out and enjoying being friends. It was all worth it. Red Raider football, through good and bad, was the best. To future players, keep the spirit alive and strong. To the Class of 2009 -- we went through some tough times, but we were still able to laugh it off with all the jokes weve shared. Let the good times keep on coming.

High school has gone by so fast. We've had our chance, we've embraced it, and now it's someone else's turn. Of course, leaving high school doesn't mean that we leave behind all of the fun and memories. Make the most of what you have experienced and live it up -- I know I will. Thank you to everyone who has supported me - to Devon, samsesies. Mom and Dad, I love you so much.

To everyone else who I care about -- see you in the real world <3

To ask someone to sum up four years of his life into such a small space should be outlawed! So here it goes. First I'd like to thank my parents for putting up with me over the years: I love you guys. I love all the sports I played, whether it be futbol, football or baseball. I loved watching hockey, especially Mudie cracking skulls and yelling till my throat bled. I'd also like to thank all my boys: life just ain't life without you. Rapp, Hall, Mudie, Cam, Bobby, John, Bancroft, ZSull, Jimy, Taylor, Gallant, Max, Rich, Scott --- I know I got more but my brain's fried. Yeesh my friends, we are free.

I moved here freshman year, probably the scariest thing I'll ever have to go through: no friends, no idea where anything was. But I met some incredible people, my best friends: not the kinds that go their separate ways until your class reunion. They become part of your family. I'm not gonna lie, I'll miss walking down these halls. HR2730, Mom, Dad, Matt: thanks for the love and support. Many tough times and you've never turned your backs on me for a second. Special thanks to my teachers, who've given me knowledge and skills that have stuck with me and will prepare me for my long journey ahead. Best of luck, Class of '09;

I hope everybody gets to where they want to be. Peace out, BHS!

I can't believe how fast high school went by. Mom and Dad - thanks for helping me through12 years of school and everything else. Steve - good luck with the last two years of school and thanks for helping me, too. Josh and Taylor - thanks for always being there for me: so many good times and SO much stupid stuff; can't wait to do some more Main St. runs and bonfires. I know no matter what stupid thing either of us do we will always do it together. Thanks to all my other friends: you know who you are.

Lastly, good luck to the rest of the Class of 2009!! I'M OUT.

To my utter disbelief I'm graduating high school, a place I never thought I'd get to. These four years have flown by so quickly! It is crazy to think that time can really go by that fast. I remember the first day of freshman year like it was just yesterday. Thanks to all my friends and teachers for all the wonderful memories you have given me. I'd be nowhere without you. Padfoot and Moony: from HP to the "Math" thread to the adventures of SMW, you are simply the finest confidantes anyone could ever ask for.

So, without further ado, peace out, guys; it's been real.

Kevin Dill

Liza and James, I've gone through the worst to get to the best - you two. You guys and Dylan have made my high school days the best they could be; I just wish I'd found you sooner. I can't wait for our Cali trip - I love you! Thank you so much for everything. I'm so proud of us all; we've had so much fun along the way. James, a million more to go. We're going to Palio's this summer until they know us by name - that's where we've eaten, vented and laughed these past years. But time flew by - here we are graduating! I love you guys so much! (You too, Sara!) =)

High school is a time for defining. Defining you and your goals. You can't let anyone tell you who to be or how to act or what to say or how to feel. It's your time now. Make good choices and you'll enjoy this time in your life even more. Surround yourself with what you need, but respect others for what they choose. It's not worth your time or effort fighting about the small, worthless things. Do what you enjoy most often as you can, and don't let anyone tell you you're wasting your time.

These four years will go by so fast, so... have fun and good luck!

dvice to pass on from my 4 years at BHS: Keep good friends. There will be times when you would go razy without them by your sides. Decide who you are and don't let yourself be defined by anyone else. Remember that you are the only one who can make decisions for yourself, so you might as well do what your heart tells you to do. Practice hedonism. Don't get caught up in all the work; enjoy yourself once in awhile. Question authority -- Don't let the man get you down!

As I look back, four years has gone by incredibly fast. I don't really know what to say besides that. The only part of high school I enjoyed was hanging out with my friends. Even though I realize that some of us will go our separate ways, most of us will still be friends after high school, so I'm not worried.

After four years, I really just want to get out of here.

Man, it seems like only yesterday that I couldn't solve complex equations of quadratic functions, but here I am, four years later, only now I CAN. And aren't I proud...eh. But seriously, I couldn't have pictured a better place to spend these last four years than BHS. Mom & Dad, I can't thank you enough, I'll love you always. To all my buds who have been down from Day One, I'll never forget y'all. Gangsta Nation lives. Stephen -- I'm proud of how much weight you've lost. To all my brothers and sisters in the Class of 2009, best of luck in your future endeavours; can't wait to see y'all again on the outside!

These past four years have gone by so quickly.

Thank you, Mom, Dad, Becca, Tory and Anna. I could never have done it without you.

Thank you to all my friends; you know who you are.

We've had so many good times. Thank you for always being there.

Congratulations, Class of 2009!

Wow. Where did the years go?
It seems like just yesterday I was entering BHS as a mere freshman, and now, in the blink of an eye, I walk the halls as a senior.

The past four years have been some of the best of my life. I'm proud to call BHS my home.

To my parents: thank you for the support you've given me throughout my life.

To my friends: thanks for the wonderful times and memories.

In all my years at BHS, I'd say I had four years of some good times and bad times. My senior year of 2007-2008 was ok. It was ok at first. Then went from bad to worse. At one point I dropped out. That was stupid on my part, but I learned my lesson. So I re-enrolled myself into school. I owe the credit all to my beloved girlfriend and her mother. They pushed me to re-enroll so I could graduate. I stayed back, but that's ok. I'll graduate this year. GOODBYE, BARNSTABLE HIGH SCHOOL and GOOD LUCK TO ALL. This is Michael Freeman reporting. OVER AND OUT!! Peace out!!

It's been a great four years; I don't want it to end! Mom and Dad, I couldn't have done it w/o u! Laurer and Ryan, you've always been there for me; I love you guys more than anything! Volleyball girls, you're like family to me! All my girls -- AmAsHIShLwCsNwMcHdTdMmKc. BBall girls, it's been real! Cazzy babie, I love you; I wouldn't have been able to survive without you! Tomatoes in the ocean, 4 fingers, with trathic, Cazz still owes us 2 dozen cookies! DVDs, CDs, and dislocating knees! BHS track, love you all! Linny, you're the man. Wille, we're getting married some day!!

It's been a wild journey, Class of 2009!

I would like to thank my parents first. As I look back over the past few years, I think of all the good times I had. Like how freshman year, before football practice I ate peanuts out of the squirrel feeder and getting caught on tape. How sopohmore year our class convinced this sub that the TV battery was broken. How junior year Gomes and I drew pictures on Mr. Eno's whiteboard and he got more demerits (even though my picture was worse).

I will remember all the other good times and all the friends that I made over the years.

What can I say? High school was high school and I couldn't've asked for anything more. You guys are he best; I honestly don't know how I would have survived without you to help me, stop me, and tell me a really awful joke to cheer me up. I love all of you people and the way we came together to make a crazy-awesome group. Through swampers, Mongols, and Sasquatch we stuck it out, and we're gonna make it the rest of the way with a song and a shimmy. Love you, see you, sticking with you -- because I would be the saddest ghost without you.

Pai Mae, Flavia amo voces, e obrigado por tudo. Wow, those high school years passed so fast. And so many unforgettable moments and unforgettable people. The ELL teachers, I thank you for all the help and being there when I needed you. Also I have to thank Coach Turco for showing me that volleyball can be really cool to play. Also I can't forget the basketball years -- not so many happy moments. But I had fun doing it. Thank you, God, for everything. FB and thanks to everyone else.

For many of us, it's time to take the next step, pull our feet out of the sand and cross the canal to find our futures. Many will find a new place to call home and some will come back home 2 Cape Cod but we can never forget the times we shared here, or the friends & teachers who have helped us get this far. BHS, it's been a great 4 years with all my friends, especially with the Friday night crew that consists of my boys, Pat F, Mike B, Brett S, Daddy Banks, Jimmy Needham and Shizzy Mitch. Also, I'd like to give a shout-out to the Monday night football crew and Mama Hall. Also to Ali G: you're like my little sister but not really. My boy, Alex Hall: we've known each other since like 7th grade and we both know I'll still beat you in a helmet boxing match. To Coach Crook for switching me to receiver and giving me the chance I've been waiting for. So BHS, I'm gone and Sully, keep doing work.

All that matters in the end is what you have made of yourself. That you have done what you love, and done your absolute best at it. That you have done it for yourself, and not to make others happy. True happiness can only come from within ourselves, and it is our job to put that inner happiness to the test. For me, that happiness comes from learning, weightlifting and fighting in MMA.

I want to thank all of my teachers who supported me and helped my get through my high school career. Through these four years of high school I could not wait to get out of here, but now I realize how importantthis place is to me. I will miss this place. Mrs. Gagnon, thanks for everything.

Mr. Leblanc, can't even explain. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Graf, I love both of you.

Mrs. Williams, I love you; thank you very much for everything.

Everybody in the school staff, thanks very much for making these four years special. God Bless

The four years that I have spent at Barnstable have changed me immensely. I, like most, have gone through good times as well as bad and although I may not use the information I was forced to learn, I have a much better perspective on the world. Most importantly, I have come to realize that there are many problems with the world, but I cannot fix them all.

Yesterday I was sitting at my 8th grade graduation wondering what my high school years would bring, and now I am a senior on my way to college! High school was filled with memories that will last forever. I enjoyed being a member of various clubs and groups in and out of school (HPSS). I'll never forget the memories I had in dance, with friends and elsewhere. Thank you to my teachers for inspiring and preparing me. Thank you to my friends and family for being there for all my ups and down.

Many people take high school for granted and before they know it it's gone. Most teens see high school as jail, but it's the last real quidance most teens receive. I tried my best to be all I could be these 4 years because I knew they would count for something. Now as a senior I realize that these years are what make you the person you become. I thank my teachers for pushing me forward. I mostly thank Mrs. Hubers; she had and always will have an everlasting impression. Lastly I thank my best friend SC and my family for always being there for me. Thanks, Mr. Wanat and BHS.

"What we are never changes, but who we are never stops changing."

Half BMR, Half BHS, high school's been fun, but what a mess!

Many more memories, so many new friends, all happened so fast, now it's the end.

BHS was amazing, BMR was outdated; forget them anyway.

It's amazing how fast these four years have gone by. They have truly been the best years of my life... so far. So many good times with my friends I couldn't begin to list. To my friends who were always by my side: OC, JW, BR, AH, MH, ET, AR, MK, TO, JB, TC, BS, IV and JG, as well as the MT's. I would like to give a special shout-out to my parents; they always had my back and always supported me. You're the best and I won't let you down.

I'd also like to give a shout-out to GD and SB. It's been real, BHS.

Well it's over, and what a good time it was. My four years at BHS are four years I will never forget. First I want to thank my family; without them none of this would have been possible. Thank you, Mom and Dad; I love you both very much. Thanks to my sister Molly, who has always been there for me. I love you, too. I also want to thank all my friends, BB JC MM TM MB AC MC, and everyone else. And thanks Shelby for everything; you are the best. Never forget Barnstable Hockey.

We've made some crazy memories, 2009, but finally we've reached the end. Thank God we made it through. Mom & Dad, I love you; thanks for never letting me give up. Corinne, I hope you make the most of your years to come. So many of you have made these years unforgettable. It's been a crazy ride. Sarah, MLK, LaxGirls: youve made an impression & these years would have been so boring without you. May you all live your lives to the fullest with no regrets! Mrs Carey, thanks for giving me guidance & listening to my stories. I'll miss these days, but it's time for the future.

Congrats, 2009! Seeyah, BHS!

Do you know how many changes I've made to this thing? For weeks I couldn't decide what to write. In school, I learned to travel the road favored by few. Freshman and sophomore years flew by, but dragged on in my junior year and freshman year. Every chance I got, I played World of Warcraft. I had my level 70 blood elf hunter, and I want to look back at myself 20 years from now and still be playing it.

My boyfriend John means the world to me and I care about him a lot.

And people might not know anything about this years from now, but you all just lost the game.

They say that high school is some of the best years of your life. Looking back, I can see a lot of truth in that. I'll never forget "the lockers;" spending time between classes ragging on the teachers; throwing Gummy Bears in the hall and watching people step on them; and helping each other through hard times AS BH CW DW GL JW JM KK LP MB NBR RH VC VL and BZ. I'll also remember my two best friends, KC and SL. Three friends who went separate ways. Some memories are too precious to lose. High school for me was great! As freshmen we never thought this time would come. Heading off to college, it's hard to imagine that it was four years ago when we entered high school, never believing we would be the ones stressed out about our futures. Thank you to everyone who has helped me succeed and enjoy my time at BHS: my parents for always motivating me to put in the extra effort, my friends for supporting me, my teachers for inspiring me, and the sailing team for opening my eyes to a new passion.

Good luck, Class of 2009.

It's been a long year...maybe too long. Thinking back to freshman year, the years have gone by so fast. I can't wait to leave this school, but school is where I met all of my friends -- Brad, Joey and others -- but I need to leave this crazy place. I know 10 or 15 years from now, no one will remember this, but you have all been rick-rolled and you lost the game! Well, I guess I might see you all in the "real world," as teachers would put it, but I'll be on top for business. These four years have been quite a struggle. I've had many times when I had no clue what to do. I've made many friends and have done many things. Some teachers I would like to recognize are Mrs. Stockdale, my Child Development teacher -- she is very caring, always there -- and Ms. Wyrtral, my choir teacher -- we had some fun. I will miss my friends, Shaelynn and Brittney and my three BK buddies, Amanda G., Amanda R., and Steven. I got my first job there sophomore year and it seems like I've worked there forever. All in all, I had a wonderful four years at BHS.

I'm going to miss being here. Mad good timez.

"Absolutes aren't always absolute, yet we believe in so many things absolutely."

High school will never come again. We met so many people and made so many bonds. Teachers and peers leave impressions we will never be able to fully identitfy. We hold all the experiences in our minds no matter what they are. We will always have feelings for these four years, which are and always will be our high school experience. No matter how these years are viewed, they are ours; we must acknowledge them, if not hold them with pride.

We all grew and changed and at the end of out transformation is high schools end.

Mom, having you at BHS wasn't that bad after all. From yellow cards to crazy Brazilian chants in soccer, to bloodthirsty hockey games at Kennedy. To my boys: ZSULLY, GALLANT, Cug, Douglas, Kuno, Timmy, SA, Larson, Shroom, JC, JA, MP, RM, JE: thank you times a million for everything. To our pastimes: Geek seshes, Japetto my savior, Rippin L's with El Pacas, JimmyKnees, MNF, Holllow, twice, wall of treason, top dog, yesssh, my friends, we are free! SC

Throughout BHS I was involved in Art Club, NHS, NAHS, Equestrian Club and Young Republicans. I will sincerely miss meeting with Mrs. Yessin's homeroom every morning, which housed amazing people who always kept me smiling. A big thanks to Mrs. Styche, Mr. Jansen, Mrs. Weill and Mr. Lopes, for truly inspiring me; my parents, brothers, classmates, especially the "art girls;" and my greatest comrades, Gwizd and Dever, who helped create memories I know I will still be laughing over in years to come. Best Wishes!

"YOU WILL MISS THE SHOTS YOU DON'T TAKE."

If I had to describe high school in one word, it would be "exhilarating." As much as I was annoyed by all the drama it brought along, the high school experience was a lot of fun and was successful in preparing me for the future... as for my friends, there are just too many to thank and say goodbye to. So I wish all of you a bright and successful future. I'll miss all of you! Goodbye, BHS; it's been a blast!

From "Mummies" to "Do I have a fudgy bottom?" my friends have made the past 4 years better than I could've ever hoped for. One championship, amazing teammates, and a whole lot of pizza have left me with amazing memories. Thank you, Dad, Mom and Nick for seeing me through...

Dont forget: "Incognito" and "You could say I'm full of myself but you don't have to."

Richard Myatt

Thanks to my teachers for everything. Mom, Tom, Taylor: I love you; thanks! Jesse, Chris: good times. Starting out with those bike rides to White Hen to now. That late night princess, Slamfest, so many more. Sarah, so many good times. Been through so much these past four years.

You're my best friend; I love you!

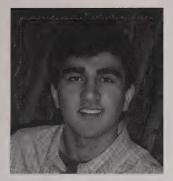

"Be careful what you wish for, history starts now."

I want to thank everyone for a wonderful four years here at BHS. To all my friends: you made these four years some of the best in my life. I will miss our times together. I want to say my Pre-calc class was my favorite math class. I only wish that I made more friends. To all my teachers: thank you for helping me through these years. To my coach: you made running fun while keeping most of us motivated and willing to push ourselves to beat the other team and our old times.

I hope that I will be able to see all my friends again, during and after college.

I doubt that I will remember every single fact that I've learned at Barnstable, but I will remember every person I've met. From Kindergarten at Osterville Elementary School to senior year here at BHS, I have been lucky to meet some truly incredible people. I will remember those who taught me something new and those who learned something from me. I owe my greatest thanks to those who have influenced and motivated me to be bold and intellectual. I wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors—and don't be afraid to be a dreamer.

I'm going to miss the wonderfully small bottom lockers, the perfume-like tobacco aroma that fills the bathrooms, and the non-partisan anti-Republican sentiment that only BHS can offer. High school has been like a traffic jam: cursing and screaming at the guy in front of you to move, until you eventually decide to plow through hoping not to hit a big scary guy who wants to beat you up. Thank you, BHS, for giving me an unforgettable experience, and thank you family and friends for giving me slaps in the face to keep me motivated. And in the words of Josh Morgan: Godspeed.

Claude Nicholas

"Never give up on your dreams or goals no matter what people say because we as young men and women can rise above our goals."

Thank you, Mom, for all you have done and do. When I'm sick, upset, or need to talk, you make me feel better or happier. I love you with all my heart and soul. Thank you, Mrs. Doherty, my first grade teacher for getting me started in my goals, and Mrs. Duran and Mr. Harmon for making me believe in myself. To my brother Josiah: I love you. To my close family and my extended family: I love you. And to my special friends: you will not be forgotten. To my teachers who have helped me above and beyond and others who have crossed my path, whether it was with a hug or words of support, I truly thank you.

It's over! I'll miss the memories and friendships most of all, but I'm ready to move on to the rest of my life. Pretty soon we'll go off into the world, and maybe then we'll be able to make sense of it.

Thanks to my friends and family for making these past four years unforgettable.

Sammi -- Good luck in the Navy! We've had so many fun times! Nora -- 8/08 haha. Love you guys!

Good luck, Class of 2009! It's been fun. I'm finally outta here! See ya, BHS!

"You got it."

High school was complicated. How could it not be? The stupid assignments, fun dances, awesome snowboarding trips, challenging classes, relationships, becoming an upperclassman, immature kids, and tons of experiments have prepared us for college or the future. In my eyes the little things count and for my friends to be there for me through this is...crazy! I know they stuck around this long b/c I always have food. Just kidding. Thanks to my dad, mom, Big 'G' Keene, Abigail, Callie, Barbie, Cheerleading Team, Kris, Bryan, Grampy, Grammy Ronnie, Heather, Jordan R -- GOOD LUCK, BHS!

High school was fun, but I put my hours in and it's about time for me to cash out while I'm ahead.

Family -- thank you for putting up with me. Sam -- senior year is not going to be the same without you.

Will and Mike and Rosemary, thanks for always being there for me. Friends -- I'm going to miss all the times we had and everything we did: Micah's Pond, Dowses, Hockey Games, Scavenger Hunts.

Over the past four years I have made important decisions that will affect my life. I have met people who have changed my life. I love this whole crazy ride they call high school. I want to thank the people who helped me along the way: Mom, Dad, Celia, AC, AH, MS and all the others who cannot be named. I will always remember Monday Night Footbal, and going muddin with the JEEP.

Also I want to thank the coaches I've had; all of them changed me.

No matter how much I want to leave now, I will always be back. See you all at the reunion! AR

I can't believe how fast time goes by. I feel as though it was just yesterday that I was entering Barnstable High School as a freshman. My four years of high school have given me the knowledge, confidence and judgement that I will need in life.

If I had to thank anyone for helping me along the way, it would have to be my mom and dad, because they have always been there for me when I have needed them most.
So while I reflect upon things gone by,
I look foward to what lies ahead, because my life has truly just begun.

This year, as a senior, I would like to state that these four years of high school at BHS were fantastic!

I felt connections with most of my teachers, grades 9-12, a "teacher-student" bond that I won't forget.

I hope that I will be able to see old friends later on in the future.

Anyway, I finish off by saying, "Yeah, boi, I'm out of here."

So I guess this is it, the end of the high school road. To tell you the truth, I'm pretty excited. But a part of me doesn't want to leave. Not because of the tests or the awful lunches, but just because after this school year, everyone will be going their separate ways, and that's pretty heartbreaking. Before we even take that turn, I just want to thank all my family and friends for helping me get this far. High school wasn't the greatest for me, but I met a lot of people who helped me through. The friends I have that have been there for me since Day One: Greig Jonson (JIV), Liz Ireland (qwi-fey), Sammi Robison, Sam Buchanan (aka god), Ethan (Eazy-E), Bruce Ciara Lewiki. Teachers who helped me out: Wiss Conroy, Mr. Kaser, Mrs. Swindler, Mrs. Weil, Ms. Welch, Mrs. Richards. Lastly, the people outside school who held me together: my family (Mom, Dad, Uncle John, Amy, Matt, Craig), RJ Hermanson, Stephen Byron, See ya, BHS!: p

Reflecting on the last four years of my life, I would have to say that so far they have been the best.

I have learned three important lessons at BHS that will guide me the rest of my life: don't procrastinate (Mrs. Gyra); don't be late (Mr. Chen); and don't be lazy (Ms. Collins). Those three teachers are the ones who drilled those morals into my head. They showed me what shouldn't be done in life, and I thank them for that... but now, I decide what should be done in life.

I would also like to thank my family for being there, and all my true friends. (You know who you are.)

Sports Highlights

Clockwise from top left: Flying with ease, but no trapeze; cheerleaders need a little fun, too; Josh Capra focuses before competition; grapplers kickin' back a bit; Raiders celebrate another triumph; upsy-daisy! Sean Duffy takes down his foe; Raider wrestler digs in and drives for the advantage.

More Foto Funnies!

Top left: Hey, Elyse, the teacher can see you sleeping! Top middle: Maybe you should go back to sleep! Top right: Sam Campbell, Stephanie Olive and Kelly McIntyre are bff's. Middle: Ari Hansen and Mel Grassetti lo-o-ove the senior caf; the trial of Raskolnikov features Elyse (again?)as the detective and Greta Aiken as the nasty old lady; is John Collins wearing his Mr. Wells costume? Above left: Sarah Holt and Nora Wood go zombie as Emma Charpentier chills and Chris Barron actually works. Above middle: Pat Mudie, Jake Brown, Alex Hall and Leo Murray look ready for action. Above right: Zach Sullivan looks just a tad mischievious, doesn't he? Right: Sam Gwizd, Jayne Croteau and Mariel Marchand never miss a chance to prep for a test.

For my sunshine,

It seems like yesterday you were starting kindergarten, Taz lunchbox in hand, tears in Grammie's eyes, and my heart filled with pride. You have always been the best part of my life, my son, my friend. I love you, and I will always be here for you... remember to be my SIMPLE MAN.

-- Mom

"Troubles will come, and they will pass...

All that you need is in your soul...

Don't you worry, you'll find yourself,

Follow your heart and nothing else,

you can do this, if you try,

All that I want for you, my son, is to be satisfied and be a simple kind of man, be something you love and understand..."

" My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you,
And wants the same things too.
Yeah, this is my wish."

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF 2009

FROM THE
BARNSTABLE POLICE ASSOCIATION
AND REID HALL, SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICER

The Barnstable High School Drama Club

The Drama Club is...

The birth of passion in a student's heart,

The sound of fledgling stilt-walkers in a corridor,

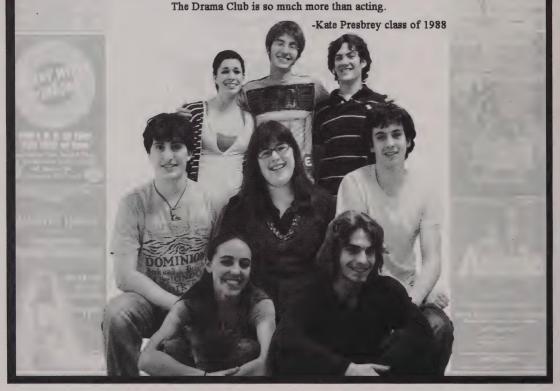

The laughter of friends coming from inside the costume closet,

A desire to be part of something healthy,

A need to be free within boundaries,

A pride in giving for the common good,

And a hope in themselves spurred by someone who believes in them.

He came to us Puck-like, 'round All Hallows Night – An elf, a sprite, a mischievous scamp.

Red-haired, hot tempered, but with smile so bright.

Rare were those tantrums when he'd scream and stamp.

Young boy born old: Buddha, enlightened one.

Young boy born old: Buddha, enlightened one.
The times he'd stand fore'er upon his head,
Or take the stage by storm – a sheep; what fun!
Then watch Nyoka 'fore heading to bed.
Old soul, young man, sing happy songs today
On your joyous journey to who-knows-where.
Long may it be, and though far you may stray,
Every voyage is fraught with worry and care.
On, Har-Dog – no fears: no matter what you do,
9 Point of Pines will be safe harbor for you.

Love,

Dad, Mom, Kate, Mike, Nana and Sammy

Dear Barnacle 2009 readers.

The 2009 Barnacle would not have been possible without contributions large and small from an enormous number of people. We'd like to take a moment and a few column inches to extend our gratitude to all of them.

First, we'd like to thank Mrs. Graves, Mr. Francis and Dr. Mika, BHS's own Masters of the Universe, for their constant support.

Of course, we can't forget our most celebrated superhero group: more excellent than the X-Men. more just than the Justice League and more vigilant than the Watchmen. You know them as The Housemasters. As one staffer said. "thanks for never once asking me for a pass or what I was doing even though my intentions were unclear and possibly detrimental to the reputations of many people by possible extortion using photographs taken for the yearbook." You all know their secret identities: Mr Mark Sullivan, Mr Mike Sullivan, Ms. Joyce Rogean, Mrs. Hope Taylor, and Mr. Steve Kaser.

A very special thank you goes out to those Wonder Women of BHS, the Administrative Assistants, whose generosity and sweet dispositions make life a lot easier for everyone around here, not just the Barnacle staff: Mrs. Muriel Carvalho, Mrs. Pat Dutra, Mrs. Jeanne Kelly, Mrs. Kathy Johnson, Mrs. Sandy Johnson, Mrs.

Lauren Kingman, Mrs. Cathy Lopes, Mrs. Lesley McDonald, and Mrs. Wendy Wright. Thanks for helping us make copies and send faxes and for "giving up the schedules of particular students after hours of ruthless 'interrogation' and questionably inhumane 'negotiation tactics'."

A super-special thanks to Mrs. Raitto, Number One Yearbook Fan (super-heroine identity: Gremlin Gal!), for always giving us absolutely everything we needed, including letting us use her hole-punch multiple times a day.

Mrs. McLane, what would we do without the super-heroine known to all as List Lady?

To the Legion of Super-Heroes, otherwise known as the faculty, thank you for letting us take, retake and re-retake your pictures and for letting us take students out of your classes in order to take superlative pictures, senior photos and various group shots, slip out of a homeroom here and there (Mr. Goode, we love you!), and listen to us rant and rave about the vearbook (Mrs. Gyra), especially Mrs. Salley, Mr. Gorrill, Mrs. Mason, Mr. Caldwell, Mr. Billard. Ms. Abom, Mrs. Lahteine, Mrs. Janet Johnson (Financial Femme), Mr. Linehan, Ms. Worth, Mr. Gyra (Peltman), Mr. Kuntzman (love your doggie!), Mr. Smith, Ms. Turner, Mrs. Lytle (Senora Storyteller), Mrs. Scaglione-Peck, Mr. Lopes, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Cazeault, Mrs. Swindler, Officer Hall, Beth Grady (CC5), Mrs. McLaughlin (for always opening up the computer lab for us), Mrs. Morelli, Mrs. McLean, and Mr. McLeod.

A big shout-out to Mr. John Sullivan (Professor X), for allowing us to use his eamera, even though he didn't always know we were using it. Oh, and thanks to Mr. Sullivan's eamera, too, for acting as a hall pass, thereby keeping anyone from inferring that we were up to no-good, tomfoolery, shenanigans or the like. And for those great Drama Club photos, too!

And Mrs. Weill, sorry we took so long to do all those cover scans, but it was probably because you were so nice to us that we didn't want to go back to Yearbook class.

Rah-rah to the coaches, too, especially Mr. Caldwell, Mr. Moynihan, and Mr. Titus, who helped us complete the sports section without a major catastrophe or any fatalities. And Coach Doberty, thanks for the pictures of your field hockey team, which were sent to us multiple times.

And we can't forget the parents and friends who helped with sports photos, like Mrs. Colby (Volleyball), Mr. Logan (Field Hockey), Mr. Sean Walsh (Basketball, Football, Cheerleading) Sandy at Fontaine Foto (Ms. Johany-on-the-Spot with all the hockey photos), and the Science Department heroine, Grappling Gal, aka Ms. Swineford (Wrestling).

To Sarah Thornington (Camera Queen), Ray (Camera King).
Rory Magnus (Robot Fighter) and Jess Powers (Schedule Sister), go our usual inadequate thanks for all they do so generously at the Studio by the Sea. They are the true Fantastic Four!

At Taylor Publications in Texas, we owe Laura Enriquez our gratitude for her unlimited patience, To Con Schmidt, our link with Taylor, our pledge to continue our fight against the dreaded Deadling Doom.

Finally, our advertisers – businesses, parents, students – you were there when we needed you in the most trying of economic times.

We hope you enjoyed this 75th edition of the Barnaele as much as we enjoyed putting it together. Stay tuned for the spring supplement, with coverage of the last three months of school: senior activities, sports, the prom and graduation. Coming to a mailbox near you this fall!

Sincerely,

The staff of Barnacle 2009
